The Shoemakers' Lock-Out

All the Factories in Cincinnati Are Closed,

And Thousands of Men Are Out of Employment--They Meet and Pass Resolutions.

CINCINNATI, May 15.--The shoemakers held a meeting at Arbeiter Hall this morning, with 700 or 800 present. Mr. H. C. Traphagen occupied the chair and Mr. Jos. T. Brennan acted as Secretary.

A lengthy protest against the resolutions adopted by the Arbitration Society of the manufacturers, which directed the employees of Rogers to return to work, was read by Mr. Traphagen, the object being to show the men the intentions of their representatives on the Board in the event of an investigation of their case.

A committee of five, consisting of Messrs. Thomas Butterworth, James Hopkins, Hugh Cavanaugh, Robert Johnson, and J. McRea, was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, after which addresses were made by Messrs. Childster, Carey, Conway, Parker and others, after which the above-named committee made the following report:

"Whereas, The members of Local Assemblies Nos. 1,839, 1,870, 1,876 and 1,901, K. of L. entered into an agreement styled 'The Board of Arbitration and Conciliation' for the best and shoe factories of Cincinnati, which agreement provides for special meetings of the Board, as per Rule 17, as follows: 'The President shall call special meetings of the Board upon the written agreement of five members of the Board, said request specifying the nature of the business to be transacted, and no business shall be transacted except that mentioned in the call. The meeting shall convene within five days after the request is made; and

"Whereas, The Board on the side of the manufacturers refused to allow the meeting to be called to order for the purpose of acting on the business set forth in the call; and

"Whereas, The President issued a call for a meeting of the Board on May 14, the members being present to transact the business for peremptory refusing to call the meeting to order, unless certain conditions should be complied with, upon which the Board had taken no action; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the manufacturers have violated Rules 2, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19, and that we publicly demand of them investigation in accordance with said agreement

"Resolved, also, That the Board of Arbitrators on the side of the aforesaid Assemblies be instructed to proceed to the selection of one arbitrator, in accordance with Rule 12, and notify the President of the Board of such selection as soon as made."

The resolutions were adopted, and after a few remarks by a number of men the meeting adjourned.

It was reported that the employees of George Hocker, seven in number, had left their benches this morning and joined the men in the lock-out.

THE THOMPSON TRIAL.

Talk, Talk, Talk!
HARRISBURG, Ky., May 15.--Hon. Dan Voorhees began his address this morning. The house was crowded. In his first sentence he outlined his argument thus: "I am here to show you that the defendant is guilty of no crime, either by human or Divine law," and he continued:

"In the cold language of the indictment, he is classed as a poor murderer; but he is not of the criminal class, but a law-abiding citizen, and by the help of God before I get through I'll show you who the murderer is! I'll show you who murdered domestic peace, who struck an assassin's blow at the sanctities of home."

The next phase of the argument was a picture of the dead man's conduct at Cincinnati, and on this point facts were grouped with amazing skill. This he intensified by a vivid delineation of Mrs. Thompson's infirmity for strong drink, and the advantage Davis took of that.

The defense of Jessie Buckner followed, coupled with the argument that the case was established independently of her testimony. The argument occupied three hours and closed at noon.

The defense rests the question of Thompson's guilt upon the plea that his reason was completely overthrown from the time of hearing the story of his wife's misfortune up to the time of the shooting, and that the presumption of Davis' guilty relations was sufficiently strong to warrant his belief in the story.

Mr. Schuyler one of the witnesses says: "There is not much excitement there," he added; "not one-tenth as much as a person would suppose by reading the papers. Thompson takes things coolly, and don't seem to manifest much anxiety over the result. The jury are a good, honest-looking set of men, and all appear to be farmers. By the way, I see there is a big fire raging there. I was thinking yesterday, while walking through the place, what would become of the town if a big fire should break out. Everything was as dry as a chip, and I am too. Come along."

Cream Pie Poison.

CLEVELAND, O., May 15.--Three sisters, Annie, Kittie and Susie Krause, living on St. Clair street, bought cream pies from a corner grocery, Saturday night, and ate them. John Davis, his wife and three children, also bought cream pies from a neighboring grocery yesterday. All the above persons were taken violently ill. Two of the Krause girls are still in a dangerous condition, but all the others are out of danger. The physicians say the pies contained a poisonous substance, and the police are working up the case.

A Triple Collision and Terrible Smash-Up, with Seven Lives Lost.

An Infernal Machine on Shipboard--France Takes Possession of the Aird Can Coast.

England.

LONDON, May 15.--A terrible collision has occurred on the Caledonian railway a Lockerby Junction. A heavy goods train from Carlisle collided with a passenger express from Stranraer, blocking the station and doing considerable damage.

While these trains were locked into each other, an express from Glasgow tore into the Lockerby Station with fearful speed, resulting in a double collision. The carriage was smashed and twenty or more passengers seriously injured and seven killed instantly.

LONDON, May 15.--The Times to-day says the particulars of the attempt to destroy a steamer plying between Liverpool and New York has just leaked out at the former place. It appears that just before the vessel left Liverpool for New York on her last voyage, having on board a number of emigrants, a man gave the steward a box and requested him as a favor to convey it to New York. The steward's suspicions were aroused and he consulted the captain, who ordered that the box be opened.

This was done in the presence of the Captain and officers, and the box found to contain an infernal machine. The contents of the box were thrown overboard, but the box itself was retained and a note made of the address upon it. The fact of this discovery was not made known publicly in New York on the vessel's arrival there, but the British Consul General in that city was notified of it. The steamer has just returned to the Mersey from New York.

BREWERS IN COUNCIL.

They are Considering the Scott Law as a Preliminary to the Action of the Convention.

CLEVELAND, May 15.--The Ohio Breweries and Malsters' Association convened here to-day in a session called in lieu of the annual meeting set for July, in order to consider the Scott Law, taxing saloons, and to transact business, preliminary to the National Convention in Detroit to-morrow.

President Leo Ebert, of Ironton, delivered an address denouncing the Scott Law as oppressive and discriminating against saloon-keepers, whose business does not warrant paying an annual tax of $200. He claims that the statute is unconstitutional, and said a case has been arranged to test its validity in the Supreme Court. After the address W. Mulhauser, John Hauk and Edward Goepfer, of Cincinnati; L. Schlather and C. E. Gehring, of Cleveland; F. Hariz, of Akron, and John Kuebler, of Sandusky, were appointed a Committee on Resolutions.

SULLIVAN-MITCHELL FIGHT

The Plucky Englishman Gains One Knock-Down, but Is Soon Knocked Out of Time.

New York, May 15.--Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather an immense crowd assembled in Madison Square Garden last night to witness the glove contest between Sullivan, the champion of America, and Mitchell, introduced as the champion of England. The holders of $1 tickets were admitted at the Fourth avenue entrance, while the holders of $2 tickets entered at the Madison avenue door. There were about 7,000 persons inside the building, and the boxes were filled with prominent club men and politicians. Roscoe Conkling and Charles A. Dana had front seats in the space reserved near the platform for the press.

The ceremonies opened at 8:30 by sparring between Pete McCoy and Bob Mulvaney. Then came a set-to between John Reilly and Steve Taylor, Jim Kelly and Jerry Murray, and others. The crowd becoming impatient, loud calls were made for Sullivan and Mitchell. There was great applause when Sullivan appeared upon the stage in fighting costume. Mitchell was also warmly applauded. Before time was called Captain Williams cautioned the two men. The work was earnest from the start. Sullivan went viciously at Mitchell, and the latter, in getting out of his way twice, watching his opportunity, got a quick blow, and Sullivan went down. He got up and closed with Mitchell, and there was close fighting until time was called and the men ordered to break.

In his corner Mitchell looked fresh, smiling and confident, while the breathing of Sullivan was labored, plainly showing a want of condition.

The second round was very spirited. Mitchell danced around Sullivan, and then closing suddenly upon him, drove him back upon the ropes. Sullivan got up and pursued the Englishman with caution, evidently bent on delivering a knock-out blow. He caught Mitchell square in the face and the Englishman fell. He got up quickly, and after sharp half-a-minute fighting, Sullivan threw him hard against the ropes. The latter sprang lightly to his feet, was knocked down, and got up dazed. Sullivan pursued him and drove him to the ropes again, and there he clear over them. The Briton fell head down, with his feet straight up in the air.

In the third round the excitement was intense. Mitchell got in some sharp body blows on Sullivan, but the latter delivered his blows with great directness and force, and the Englishman was twice knocked down. The third time he rose quite groggy, when Police Captain Williams rushed upon the stage and ordered the fight stopped. There was much confusion for a few minutes, but when order was restored both men removed the gloves, shook hands, and were presented with bouquets of flowers.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC.

A Terrible Plague in Niagara County.

N. Y.--One Hundred Cases Reported.

LOCKPORT, May 15.--Dr. Ransom, of Lockport, by order of Dr. Harris, of the State Board of Health, has investigated the reported epidemic of malignant measles in Burgholtz, Niagara county. He found the condition even worse than reported. There are nearly one hundred cases of sickness, and the disease is spreading.

Four schools are closed, and there are no adequate means to check the continued increase of the disorder. The disease is not merely the German measles, but the more dreaded and dangerous black measles. In fatal cases so far it has taken the pneumatic form and filled the lungs of children with severe inflammation, resulting in strangulation.

A number of cases of common measles, and one case only of German measles, were found. The disease was brought by a German emigrant. Dr. Ransom will continue the investigation. The inhabitants of that section are in a great state of excitement and apprehension.

Boys' Strike Against Sunday Work.

New York, May 15.--A strike of the messenger boys in the service of the Mutual District Telegraph office at No. 8 Pine street has been started. The boys usually run errands for brokers, and have a holiday on Sunday. The company issued an order requiring them to work every alternate Sunday. To this programme they objected, and the strike was the result.

About seventy-five boys are employed in the office and they are kept hard at work nine hours each day. They declare that they will not return unless the express understanding that they will not be asked to do duty on Sundays. Their salary is $4.50 per week, and the brokers for whom they work keep them very busy. They say that Nos. 94 and 812--the former known as "Three-Fingered Jack"--have returned to work at forty per cent. of their earnings. These two lads were the leaders in the strike.

LEXINGTON, May 15.--The fifth meeting of the Kentucky Association was an improvement upon last week's races.

A GOLDEN STONEHOUSE.

A Mystery That Is Exciting Last Chance, Montana.

NEW YORK, May 15.--A correspondent from Last Chance, in Missouia county, Montana, says: Two Frenchmen came into Last Chance yesterday, who have been recognized as Augustine Raffello and "Antoine, the Trapper," both of whom have been known for years in the mining camps of Oregon and Idaho. They have created a sensation in the display of half a dozen long buckskin bags filled with gold dust and glistening nuggets, from the size of bird shot to that of a walnut. The story runs that for years past these two men have been in the habit of spending most of their time in the frontier camps, but now and then they would disappear for a month or six weeks and suddenly make their appearance, always with their pouches well filled with dust. Of course they are supposed to visit some placer country of fabulous richness, where by a few days' work they are able to extract $2,000 or $3,000, which they spend with lavish hand during their sojourn in the camp.

Attempts have been made to follow them on their excursions, which usually resulted in their hiding in the mountains and eluding pursuit; but one man claims to have followed them into the Kontena country to a point near the British line, where a narrow pass was reached, and that while one went on, the other mounted guard with a Winchester rifle. He attempted to approach the sentinel, but was ordered to halt, accompanied by a discharge of the rifle. The companion immediately appeared, as if the shot was a mutually understood signal, and the intruder was warned to leave the vicinity on pain of death. The romantic setting of the story makes it extremely interesting, and many of the old frontiersmen place implicit faith in its entire truth, citing as a basis of their confidence the fact that the men do disappear and invariably return with plenty of gold; but I have heard no satisfactory reason given for the failure to find that narrow pass and penetrate the mysteries beyond during some of the long intervals that the heroes of the yarn spend in the camps.

HUSHED UP.

A Son Who Embezzled $13,000--A Father Who Saved His Reputation.

NEW YORK, May 15.--In the office of a Newark law firm the proprietors of a large clothing-house in Broadway, this city, received $13,024 which their assistant cashier and bookkeeper had embezzled from them. The young man had been in their employ over six years, and had won their confidence. Some time ago he contracted an intimacy with a dissolute woman in this city, and gave her money and valuable presents. That his wife might not become suspicious from his lack of money, he used the firm's funds until he had taken nearly $13,000.

Finally he became alarmed and decided to break off with the woman who had ensnared him. But she had learned from him that he was a defaulter, and she used this knowledge in extorting money more from him. He put her off with small sums from time to time, and still she hounded him at the store. At last he resolutely refused her, and then she revealed to the firm that he had robbed them. At first the clerk denied it, but soon admitted that her story was true. He was arrested and placed in charge of an officer, who accompanied him to Newark, where he confessed to his wife.

The young man's father, who resides in Morristown, made up the deficiency in his accounts, and the prisoner was then released. It was said yesterday that he would go to Europe. He is thirty years old, and has two children.

hours and forty-five minutes, making

The Republican is incorrect in stating that the Cummins case is over and done with. His attorneys have taken an appeal and confidently look for a reversal, either a discharge or a new trial.

Among the improvements contemplated in Maysville this season are a steam flour mill, residence and warehouse, by Mr. L. Foster. They will be erected on Fourth street, between Market and Plum, and we are informed, the work will begin at an early day.

mittees of this county, at the convention held last Saturday, were directed to elect each a chairman and secretary, and the secretary of the county committee.

MR. ALF. BURNETT, the celebrated humorist, will amuse the citizens of calities, Tuesday evening, May 22nd. He of that place of an entertainment of real merit.

services at the Baptist Church, Sunday morning and evening. This congregation will hereafter worship at the Baptist Church on such Sabbaths as the Third

THE Yeoman in speaking of the Maysville races says: The parties having this in charge have managed well, and are entitled to great credit for the success which attends each meeting. Their course is said to be one of the fastest and best arranged in the United States. It has ample accommodations, both for stock and for people. Hon. J. S. Lut-

A CONTRACT was made on Tuesday between the Street Railroad Company and the Maysville and Germantown Turnpike Company, giving the former the right of way over that portion of the latter's road below Lower street as far as the old Cunningham property. The railroad is to be placed on the side of the turnpike and the railroad company is to keep the whole road in repair. The contract is for fifty years.

An exchange gives the following as an excellent way to cook calf's liver: Slice thin some nice salt pork, such as has a streak of fat and a streak of lean, and fry until a light brown, then put in the liver; cut about half an inch thick and dust well with flour and season with a little pepper; while it is frying lay the slices of pork on top of it, and that makes it fry enough and gives it a fine flavor; fry until done through and serve at once, with a slice of pork on each slice of liver; great care should be taken not to cook the liver too much, or let it stand before eating as it makes it hard and tough.

THE RACES.

SOTHAM AND CATCHFLY TAKE THE PURSES.

Extremely Disagreeable Weather Causes a Slim Attendance—The Promises for To-day are Better.

The second annual spring meeting of the Maysville Trotting Association opened yesterday. The weather was not at all favorable, being cloudy and extremely cool for this season of the year. Overcoats and blankets were in demand, and, no doubt, the few who were in attendance often wished during the afternoon that they were at home beside a cozy fire. The attendance, as intimated above, was slim, but fair weather is predicted for the rest of the week, and we hope to see large crowds in attendance. In the first race Sotham, Mand R., William T. and Emma Strathmore answered to the call. Sotham was the favorite all along and won easily in three straight heats, Maud R. taking second money, William T. third and Emma Strathmore fourth.
In the second race, the 2:25 class, Alta, Catchfly and Lady Thorn were the only ones to start, with Alta and Catchfly having an equal number of admirers at the beginning. The first heat showed, however, that Catchfly had things all her own way, and she won the purse in three straight heats.

FIRST RACE—SUMMARY.
Sotham..... 1 1 1
Maud R..... 2 2 2
William T..... 3 3 3

of Indiana were the timers.

The judges were Messrs. John W.
Alexander, of this place, H. C. Litter, town.

ville are not showing by their presence at the Trotting Park, their appreciation of the enterprise of the Association in bringing to Maysville some of the most celebrated horses in the world. We hope to see a better attendance as the meeting progresses.

COUNTY POINTS.

CORN is coming up nicely in this vicinity.
D. T. Thomas has returned home from a visit west.
Wheat is looking better by far than farmers anticipated.
Tobacco plants, though late, yet there will be an abundance of them.

Uncle Sam Mitchell and Gathier Worthington went to the State or Lewis fishing last week, but they say fish didn't bite worth a cent.

Tragedy at Maysville, I am told, have emigrated west and I am told the town has been planned in potatoes, which are looking remarkably well. As a momentary thing have offered a reward to the man living within the limits of Maysville who can tell the truth. The premium has not yet been decided, but it is the general opinion that either Mr. W. S. Frank, Costigan, E. R. Davis or C. H. Darnall will wear the blue sash.

We had the pleasure of attending church at Millersburg Sunday morning and listened to a very able discourse from Prof. E. V. Zou-lars, of North Middletown, Ky. At night service he dwelt upon the subject of sin. His remarks were sound and pointed. (Come out the second and fourth Sunday of each month and hear him. He is a sound man and preaches sound doctrine. Among the distinguished persons present were Mr. Judd and body, of Maysville, who furnished us with the following notes. We find that the good sisters of Millersburg are their untiring and faithful enemies have been springing new and new with some very handsome chairs, bible and pulpit, which by their tasteful selection an-easily displayed in the matter, we certainly to serve the people of the community. A woman's will is strong. She never undertakes a good cause that she does not accomplish. (Refrain from the present associations, the protecting care of a woman and what would he be? I leave it to the many readers of your valuable paper to decide and answer. SANCHE PANZA.

Edward Myall, of Maysville, stopped at the Stonewall House last Saturday for dinner and reported his trip to the city. He returned with two wazons and three buggies. All to be delivered on the Monday following, he left in his buggy, looking to find some other liberal minded man before or to be renewed.

The latest excuse for not attending church, is not having your feet combed, will that be a valid excuse for the day of days.

Rev. A. N. Gilbert arrived on Monday evening and will remain in the city for a week the meeting will continue all the week six additional services will be made to the church.
Elder Hendricks preached to the Presbyterian Church in this place last Sunday.

son of, of New York, are holding a revival meeting at Sardis. We were present on Saturday, then a very large congregation of a good meeting and it will continue over Sunday.

FARMERS in this neighborhood, all finished planting corn several days since.

We were blessed with a good rain, of which we were so much in need, in this section on last Thursday.

Miss Katie Evans returned to her home near Dover, last Wednesday.

Mr. H. Wallingford, returned from Mr.
Gilead on Monday afternoon, where she has been for several days attending a yearly meeting at the M. Gilead Church. Elder J.
H. Wallingford, pastor, was assisted by several visiting preachers.

A Mr. Leigh from Bracken county, came into this neighborhood several days since for the purpose of purchasing some seed corn, and just before reaching here, his horse became frightened and ran away, completely demolishing the buggy, and he had to borrow a spring wagon in which to take his corn home.

Miss Lizzie Black, of Covington, and Miss Annie Worthington, of the same city, accompanied by her cousin Miss Mary Worthington, are visiting the family of Mr. Mat.
Worthington, of this place.

We saw a promissory note a few days since, of which we will give the form to our readers and the BULLETIN can tell you whether it is correct or not. It reads as follows:

"I Joe Myers promise to pay to $6 dollars in 5 or 6 days.

I JOE MYERS."

Miss Lizzie Pickett, of Frankfort and Mr.
T. B. Hooton, of this city, are holding a revival meeting at the residence of Miss Sue Worthington, on last Thursday evening.

Quite an unfortunate accident occurred at our school on Wednesday last, while the children were playing at noon. One of the little girls, a daughter of James Lyndon, fell and dislocated her shoulder. It seems that no one was to blame, as it was purely accidental. The limb was set by Drs. Shackelford, of Maysville, and Reed, of Minerva.
We saw the patient on Friday, and was glad to find her doing much better than we expected before visiting her; think she will be out again in a short time.

The time for holding the District Conference at the Hebrew church, near here, has been changed from the 15th to the 22nd inst.
The Conference will convene on next Tuesday the 22nd and continue in session three days.

By land or at sea, out on the prairie, or in the crowded city, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best for purgative purposes, everywhere alike convenient, efficacious and safe. For sluggish bowels, torpid liver, indigestion, bad breath, flatulency, and sick headache, they are a sure remedy.

NOTWITHSTANDING much has been said about the importance of a blood-purifying medicine, it may be possible that the matter has never seriously claimed your attention. Think of it now! If, by the use of a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla you avoid the evils of scrofula, and transmit a healthy constitution to your offspring, thank us for the suggestion.
